We purchased an 2022 Mercedes Benz GLB 250 4Matic from Mercedes-Benz of Naperville last week and worked with Mark Curtis. Our experience could not have been better. Mark was super responsive and professional and spent a lot of time with us explaining the various features of the car. Mark is incredibly genuine and not at all "salesy".

An officially supported damage should be added, there is no good argument against this. All they need to do is allow people to simply set their damage to private if they can't handle potential criticism or just don't want to mess with it. Same way they did with the adventure plates. They could even implement the feature with "private" as the default setting.
