Benedict Jacka is half-Australian, half-Armenian, and grew up in London. He's worked as a teacher, bouncer, and civil servant, and spends his spare time skating and playing tabletop games. He is the author of the Alex Verus Novels (Fated, Cursed, Taken, Chosen).

Hidden (Alex Verus Series #5) by Benedict Jacka, Paperback ...

3.5 hearts Hidden is the fifth book in the Alex Verus Series. So far this series has been getting better and better with each installment and while I did enjoy Hidden quite a bit it wasn't my favorite book of the series so far, Chosen still holds that space but it is another really good story which captured my attention from start to finish and had a few characters moving in directions I ...

Hidden is the 5th book in Benedict Jacka's long running series, following the mage Alex Verus, the hidden magical society of Great Britain, as well as his close friends. I found this book an excellent read. The theme of this book is very much one that we can never escape our pasts and that events may not occur the way you expect them too.

We know that Alex hasn't always been on the side of the light. We realise that, as a young person, he dabbled with darkness via Richard. Yet we don't know a lot about his childhood or what led him to that point. In Hidden Benedict lifts the veil and Alex reveals more. We even get to spend time with Mr Verus senior who demonstrates that Alex isn't exactly a chip off the old block.
